

International Foundation Programme Course Profile

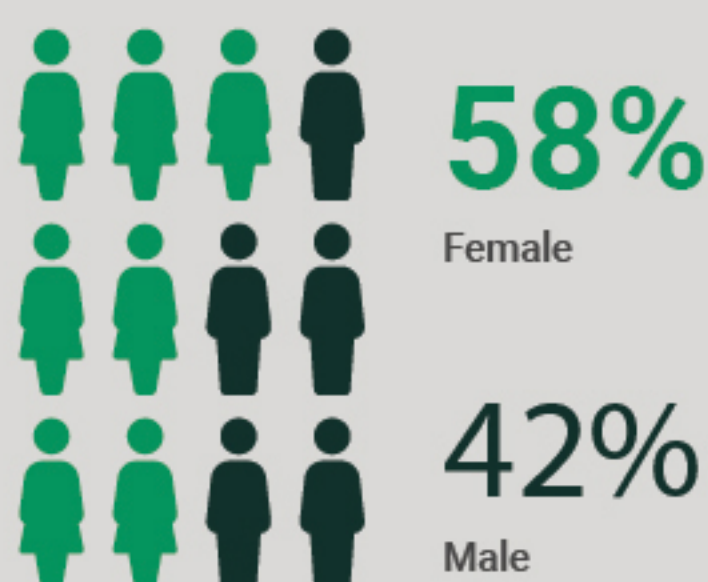

Our Pathway Programmes are designed to help you achieve your academic goals. Through our International Foundation Programmes, you can develop your academic and English language skills, ready for undergraduate study.

This infographic gives you a snapshot of our student body, from who they are to where they are from.

Campus location

Gender

Student age at start of course

17-18
years

19-21
years

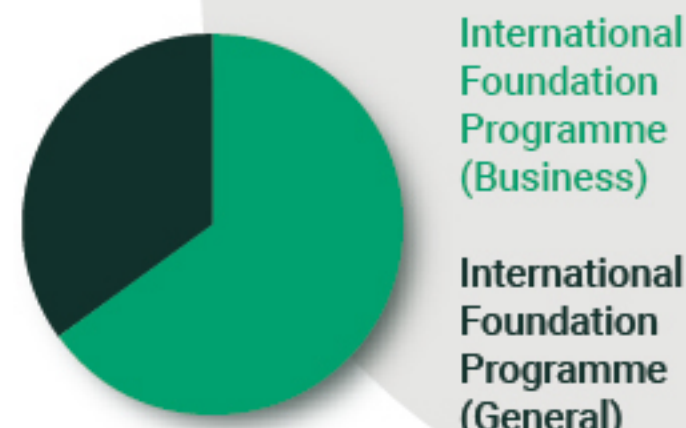

22-25
years

26+
years

Length of study

Course uptake

Our students' nationalities

Afghan	Colombian	Moroccan	Spanish
American	Ecuadorian	Nigerian	Sri Lankan
Brazilian	Indian	Peruvian	Turkey
British	Kenyan	Salvadorian
Cameroonian	Lebanese	South Korean

What our students say

"The campus is really lovely, I feel like I live in the forest. The library area and classrooms are really comfortable and spacious for me to study in."

Isil Dogangun, Turkey

For more information on studying a Pathway Programme at the University of Roehampton please get in touch.

Enquire now →